

Child Protection Policy

This policy provides the framework for:

- the development of work systems, practices, policies and procedures that promote child protection within the College;
- the creation of a positive and robust child protection culture;
- the promotion and open discussion of child protection issues within the College; and
- compliance with all laws, regulations and standards relevant to child protection in Victoria.

Statement of Commitment to Child Safety

Child abuse includes sexual offences, grooming, physical violence, serious emotional or psychological harm, serious neglect and a child's exposure to family violence. Lavalla Catholic College is committed to the protection of all children from all forms of child abuse and demonstrates this commitment through the implementation of a comprehensive Child Protection Program designed to keep children safe.

At Lavalla Catholic College we have a zero tolerance for child abuse and are committed to acting in children's best interests and keeping them safe from harm. The College regards its child protection responsibilities with the utmost importance and as such, is committed to providing the necessary resources to ensure compliance with all relevant child protection laws and regulations and maintain a child safe culture.

Child Safe Values & Principles

The College's commitment to child safety is based on the following overarching principles that guide the development and regular review of our work systems, practices, policies and procedures to protect children from abuse.

1. All children have the right to be safe.
2. The welfare and best interests of the child are paramount.
3. The views of the child and a child's privacy must be respected.
4. Clear expectations for appropriate behaviour with children are established in our Child Protection Code of Conduct and Staff and Student Professional Boundaries Policy.
The safety of children is dependent upon the existence of a child safe culture.
Child safety awareness is promoted and openly discussed within our College community.
5. Procedures are in place to screen all staff, Direct Contact Volunteers, Leadership Team members,
6. Third Party Contractors, members of Religious Orders and External Education Providers who have direct contact with children.

7. Child safety and protection is everyone's responsibility.
8. Child protection training is mandatory for all Leadership Team members, staff, Direct Contact
9. Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors*.
10. Procedures for responding to alleged or suspected incidents of child abuse are simple and accessible for all members of the College community.
11. Children from culturally or linguistically diverse backgrounds have the right to special care and support including those who identify as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander.
12. Children who have any kind of disability have the right to special care and support.

Direct Contact Volunteers are those volunteers that are involved in providing support, guidance and supervision directly to students and could potentially have direct unsupervised contact with students during the normal course of providing the volunteer service.*

Examples of Direct Contact Volunteer activities may include volunteers involved in College camps and excursions, coaching sporting teams or assisting in learning activities.

Direct Contact Contractors are third party contractors who have direct unsupervised contact with students during the normal course of their work or contractors who may be in a position to establish a relationship of trust with a student notwithstanding that unsupervised access to students would be rare (for example full-time maintenance personnel). This also includes any contractors whom a school is legally required to screen.*

Examples of Direct Contact Contractor activities may include tutors, sports coaches and casual teachers.

Child Protection Program

Lavalla Catholic College is committed to the effective implementation of our Child Protection Program and ensuring that it is appropriately reviewed and updated. We adopt a risk management approach by identifying key risk indicators and assessing child safety risks based on a range of factors including the nature of our College's activities, physical and online environments and the characteristics of the student body.

Our Child Protection Program relates to all aspects of protecting children from abuse and establishes work systems, practices, policies and procedures to protect children from abuse. It includes:

- clear information as to what constitutes child abuse and associated key risk indicators;
- clear procedures for responding to and reporting allegations of child abuse;
- strategies to support, encourage and enable staff, Volunteers, members of Religious Orders, Third Party Contractors, External Education Providers, parents and students to understand, identify, discuss and report child protection matters;
- procedures for recruiting and screening Leadership Team members, staff, Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors;
- pastoral care strategies designed to empower students and keep them safe;
- policies with respect to cultural diversity and students with disabilities;
- a child protection training program;
- information regarding the steps to take after a disclosure of abuse to protect, support and assist children;
- guidelines with respect to record keeping and confidentiality;
- policies to ensure compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and standards (including the Victorian Child Safe Standards and the MSA Standards); and
- a system for continuous review and improvement.

As a part of Lavalla Catholic College's induction process, all staff, Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors are required to complete a selection of training modules on the content of our Child Protection Program.

All staff, Direct Contact Volunteers, Leadership Team members and Direct Contact Contractors are provided with additional, ongoing child protection training at least annually.

Staff, Volunteers, members of Religious Orders, Third Party Contractors and External Education Providers are supported and supervised by the College's Child Protection Officers to ensure that they are compliant with the College's approach to child protection.

Responsibilities

Child protection is everyone's responsibility. At Lavalla Catholic College all members of the Leadership Team and staff, as well as members of Religious Orders, and Volunteers, have a shared responsibility for contributing to the safety and protection of children. Specific responsibilities include:

Leadership Team

Each member of the Leadership Team is required to ensure that appropriate resources are made available to allow the College's Child Protection Policy and the Child Protection Program to be effectively implemented within the College.

The Principal

The Principal is responsible, and will be accountable for, taking all practical measures to ensure that this Child Protection Policy and the College's Child Protection Program are implemented effectively and that a strong and sustainable child protection culture is maintained within the College.

The College's Child Protection Officers

A number of senior staff members are nominated as the College's Child Protection Officers. Our Child Protection Officers receive additional specialised training with respect to child protection issues. They are the first point of contact for raising child protection concerns within the College. They are also responsible for championing child protection within the College and assisting in coordinating responses to child protection incidents.

Staff Members

All staff are required to be familiar with the content of our Child Protection Policy and our Child Protection Program and their legal obligations with respect to the reporting of child abuse. It is each individual's responsibility to be aware of key risk indicators of child abuse, to be observant, and to raise any concerns they may have relating to child abuse with one of the College's Child Protection Officers.

Direct Contact Volunteers

All Direct Contact Volunteers, as defined in this policy, are required to be familiar with the content of our Child Protection Policy and our Child Protection Program and their legal obligations with respect to the reporting of child abuse.

It is each individual's responsibility to be aware of key risk indicators of child abuse, to be observant, and to raise any concerns they may have relating to child abuse with one of the College's Child Protection Officers.

Indirect Contact Volunteers

Indirect Contact Volunteers (or 'Indirect Volunteers') are those volunteers who are involved in providing support and services whilst not directly assisting a specific group of students. Indirect contact volunteers are not responsible for supervising students and would not have "unsupervised" contact with students during the normal course of providing the volunteer service.

All Indirect Volunteers are responsible for contributing to the safety and protection of children in the College environment.

All Indirect Volunteers are required by the College to be familiar with our Child Protection Policy and our Child Protection Code of Conduct.

Examples of Indirect Contact Volunteer activities may include assisting with College functions, or the College canteen and fundraising barbeques.

Third Party Contractors

All Third Party Contractors (service providers) engaged by the College are responsible for contributing to the safety and protection of children in the College environment.

Third Party Contractors include, for example, maintenance and building personnel, consultants, sports coaches and College cleaners.

This also includes music teachers and other extra-curricular teachers and instructors who are engaged by students and their families directly, rather than the College, but have an agreement with the College to use the College's facilities.

Direct Contact Contractors are:

- those who have direct unsupervised contact with students during the normal course of their work;
- those who may be in a position to establish a relationship of trust with a student notwithstanding that unsupervised access to students would be rare (for example full-time maintenance personnel); and
- any contractors whom a school is legally required to screen.

Indirect Contact Contractors are those contractors who do not meet the definition of "Direct Contact Contractor".

All service providers engaged by the College are required by the College to be familiar with our Child Protection Policy and our Child Protection Program.

The College may include this requirement in the written agreement between it and the service provider.

External Education Providers

An External Education Provider is any organisation that the College has arranged to deliver a specified course of study that is part of the curriculum, to a student or students enrolled at the College.

The delivery of such a course may take place on College premises or elsewhere.

All External Education Providers engaged by the College are responsible for contributing to the safety and protection of children in the College environment.

All External Education Providers engaged by the College are required by the College to be familiar with our Child Protection Policy and our Child Protection Program.

Lavalla Catholic College may include this requirement in the written agreement between it and the External Education Provider.

Reporting Child Protection Concerns

Our Child Protection Program provides detailed guidance for members of the Leadership Team, staff, Direct Contact Volunteers, Direct Contact Contractors and members of Religious Orders as to how to identify key risk indicators of child abuse and how to report child abuse concerns to one of our College's nominated Child Protection Officers. It also contains detailed procedures with respect to the reporting of child abuse incidents to relevant authorities.

Staff, Third Party Contractors, External Education Providers, Volunteers, students, parents/guardians and other community members who have concerns that a child may be subject to abuse or grooming are asked to contact the College's Senior Child Protection Officer, the Deputy Principal Student Wellbeing and Operations - Douglas Doherty, by phoning Kildare Campus - 51748111 / St Paul's Campus - 51747355 or emailing childprotection@lavalla.vic.edu.au

Communications will be treated confidentially on a “need to know basis”.

In Victoria, all College staff who form a reasonable belief that a child is in need of protection must report their concerns to DHHS Child Protection or Victorian Police.

Any person at the College who forms a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed against a child under 16, must disclose that information to the Police. For more information about this obligation refer to our Protection of Children – Failure to Disclose Policy.

Whenever there are concerns that a child is in immediate danger the Police should be called on 000.
